Our 2 year old classrooms discovered what seeds are: what they look like, what they do, what they need to grow into the food we eat. Teachers used organic seed packets, Zip-loc bags, water soaked paper towels and sunlight to "plant" sweet peas. Then the classroom discussion can continue as they watch what happens.